

THE MOUNTAINS & WATERFALLS OF WALES

WEEK-END OF MARCH 25th

ONLY 12 PLACES AVAILABLE FOR THIS TRIP

Highlights:

Hike past a series of amazing waterfalls and walk behind one

Witness a typical U-shaped glacial valley

Visit the largest burial cairn in the Beacons

FRIDAY MARCH 24th

Drive to Abergavenny & check into hotel

SATURDAY

THE WATERFALLS HIKE (10-11 miles)

We begin with what can only be described as a sublime hike, a circuit of up to 7 waterfalls in the most renowned waterfall area of the UK.

“Snow falls” – walk behind a waterfall and come out the other side – must be tried once in a lifetime! Other highlights include caves and the waterfall visitor centre.

SUNDAY

BLAEN Y GLYN “hanging valley” Ridgeline walk (9 miles)

A walk around this glacial valley, which has many special geological characteristics and lots to discover. There is a short challenging ascent at the beginning, but once you are up you stay up - true skyline walking.

One of the most varied and interesting walks in the Beacons, which packs in loads for its' relatively short distance.

This is a hiking week-end and a good level of fitness is required on day 1 and day 2

You should plan to take a part of Friday March 24th off work to travel to Wales. There are no train stations near the beginning or end of the hikes which are in the mountain regions
